Privacy Commitment

Our Group is bound by Principles contained in the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance. We now provide the following privacy statement which relates to personal information collected about members of M DINING. The information collected by Miramar Group includes your name, mailing address, contact number, email and credit card details. Collection of this information is necessary to process and deliver your membership. It also ensures that we are able to contact you for renewal in 12 months' time to ensure your continuity as a member. We also collect information pertaining to your leisure requirements to enable us to contact you throughout the year to update you on any promotions or special events happening in or around our hotels in Asia Pacific and other countries where you can benefit from your membership, or on other Miramar Group programmes. This ensures that you receive the greatest benefits from your membership. If the information we wish to collect about you is not provided, we may not be able to process your membership or contact you to renew your membership in 12 months' time or to update you on promotions or special events, thus limiting your membership benefits.
